New Skirt For 1866.

The Great Invention of the Age in HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day wil never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2-ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc., etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST BRADLEY & CARY, PROPRIETORS of the Invention, and SOLE MANUFACTURERS, 97 CHAMBERS, 79 & 81 READE STREETS New York.

For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

Late Papers.

LATE Richmond and New York, papers are kept for sale at the post-office.

Salisbury Dec. 11th 1865. tfd-169.

To the Citizens of North-Carolina.

The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a removal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends,—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandies, Holland Gin, Liquors, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate Importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt to expose these wholesale frauds; no time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose, and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.

Twenty-five years' business transaction with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britian have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liquors, and Liqmures of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of the "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical Faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasaht, and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and venders of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which with ordinary circumspection will inshure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.

I would however, recommend in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot. 22 Beaver Street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandies, &c. in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign wines, embraceing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especialy recommended to all connaisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I wotld especially call the earley attention of my Southern customers to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to inshure the fulfilment of their favors from the present large and well select-

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty suport which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, also, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.

STATE OFFICES.

The Legislature has we believe filled all the offices of trust and profit except that of Comptroller. How have they been filled? With straight forward Union men or secessionests? With men who thought the war wrong and never gave in their adhesion to it; such as Mr. Boyden, Dr. Jones, Dr. Sloan, J. G. Lash, and many others? Not one we believe. Are any secessionists elected? Out of over twenty offices, but one secessionist was elected to office. The offices are nearly, if not all, filled by men who were once Union men—who remained so until Mr. Lincoln's Proclamation April 1861, and up to that time urged the people never to give up the Union under any circumstances, to stand by the flag, and if necessary to fight for it. That South Carolina had no right to secede, and that if she did, she ought to be whipped back &c. &c., yet when Mr. Lincoln called upon them to put into practice their professions, they backed down and gave way before and by so doing increased popular or apparently popular sentiment of sympathy &c. that sprang up when Sumpter fell. And yet this class of men, while denying the right of secession and at the same time a just cause for revolution, desert the masses who wished to remain, as they had been taught to be, faithful to the Union of the States under the Constitution, and say they must go "with their States." This is the shallowest of excuses, to do that they thought wrong, the more especially as these gentlemen never conceded the doctrine that our primary allegiance was due to our State. Everybody knows that North Carolina as late as the 28th February 1861, proved herself Union to the core; that secession had been burried too deep for the hand of resurrection to reach it; that the people, the masses, were ready to confirm their previous opinion and wanted but the word from their Union leaders; and yet these leaders who had taught, inculcated and fixed this popular sentiment, when the hour came to lead the people by the Union lights, not only like Peter denied their faith, but mounted the stump for resistance to Federal aggressions! By degrees they got everything to wear a secession aspect, on the exterior; but the great heart of the masses never changed. Secessionists were killed by the February election and were from that time forth powerless alike for good or for evil, so far as influencing popular sentiment went. The people needed no urging to stand by the Union; they were but waiting for the word—from their former Union leaders.

Secession had been killed outright and ruthlessly buried in February, and it was resurrected by these Union leaders in April and the breath of life breathed into its nostrils by them. The people gave their treasures and their children at the instance of these gentlemen and yet after every house-hold in the land was wearing mourning, this same class commenced plotting against the Confederacy; they excite distrust; they incite opposition; they indirectly encourage desertion, and cry out lustily for a peace on terms which would only bring the State back to where she was before 20th May 1861, thereby showing that they, not only were willing to yield principle to expediency, but that they likewise were willing to let the expenditure of blood and treasure go for nothing because, the shoe began to pinch.

Now we not only respect, but we admire such men as Boyden, Moore, Dr. Jones et id omne genus, because, however differing from us, they stood by their principles, through "thick and thin," through evil report and good. They and all such men deserve the approbation and cordial endorsement of the North, if not the South, for building their house upon the rock of principle, though the wind blew and the storm beat upon that house, it fell not. We have urged hitherto, and shall continue to urge, until we get reconstructed, the election of "strait" Union men to office, and shall insist that if a departure must be made, let it be in favor of those who have shown themselves, at least, worthy to be trusted by somebody.

REVIVED.

We welcome to our exchange list the Richmond Examiner and the Dispatch. They have just been revived under favorable auspices, after an absence of several months, and we wish them abundant success. We were long a reader and admirer of these journals, and during our long, weary perambulations over the classic hills of the Old Dominion, none were more warmly welcomed by us than they. The Examiner was read and admired throughout the South for its bold and manly counsel, its ability, pointed epigram and literary taste. The Dispatch for its dignified tone, reliableness, and courteous style. Their past is a sufficient guarantee of their future success.

A Fenian Revolution—The President and Secretary of the Treasury deposed—The new President.

[From Johnson's Independent Agency.]

New York, Dec. 9.—At the session of the Senate of Fenian Brotherhood, held in New York on the 7th inst., articles of impeachment were filed against John O'Mahony, President of the Brotherhood, for perfidity and malfeasance in the office.—The charges and specifications, which are very minute and voluminous, were served on Mr. O'Mahony, on the following day, with notice to put in a plain response, within twenty-four hours, under penalty of having judgment by default recorded against him. Mr. O'Mahony having taken no steps to meet the indictment against him, the Senate today resolved itself into a Court of Judicature, according to the provisions of their institution, and having investigated the charges, declared them proved, and deposed O'Mahony from the position of President. A unanimous vote was then passed calling on the Vice President, W. R. Roberts, to qualify by taking the oath of office, on which that gentleman was sworn into office, stipulating beforehand that no compensation should be attached to the position while he occupied it. The Secretary of the Treasury, R. D. Killan, has also been deposed on grounds similar to those advanced against O'Mahony. An address to the circles has been issued by the Senate and forwarded by mail.

Washington, Dec. 9.—Gen. Banks and Speaker Colfax have promised to lecture before the Negro Suffrage Association. It is understood they take strong grounds in favor of negro suffrage. Mrs. Swisshelm's new paper to be started here will advocate negro suffrage.

Philadelphia, Dec. 9, 4 p, m.—A heavy snow storm prevailing.

Telegraphic information has been received of the adoption of the amendment by North Carolina, Georgia and Alabama.

No information of any kind has been received of the adoption or rejection of the amendment by Indiana, Iowa, California, Oregon, Florida, Mississippi or Texas.

Philadelphia, Dec. 10.—The collector of internal revenue has seized 100,000 cigars and 55 barrels of whisky, liable to forfeiture for being offered for sale without the internal revenue tax being paid.

European.

Spain has withdrawn her interference in Chilian affairs.

Stephens, the Fenian Head Centre, has not been captured.

Cotton, breadstuffs and provisions are unchanged. Consols 894.

The Military in the Southern States.

Washington, Dec. 8.—It is currently reported here that, as many of the Southern States have adopted the constitutional amendment, and guaranteed protection to the freedmen in all their rights the military force will be withdrawn from such States, and the Freedman's Bureau abolished.

Increase of the regular Army.

The board which is now in session considering the application for positions in the regular army have passed upon a large number of cases. The order of the Secretary excluding all persons except those who have been in the volunteer service two years will probably be changed, as there are not enough of this class to fill the vacancies. Senator Sumner has already brought forward his bill to regulate the commerce between the several States, the effect of which is to prevent, per capita, tax on passengers travelling by rail in New Jersey and Maryland.

Future action of the President.

It is rumored in well informed circles that the President will withdraw the Provisional Governors of the several States as soon as the Constitutional amendment is adopted, the freedmen given the right to testify, and the rebel debt and the acts of secession declared null and void. The military force will then be withdrawn, and Freedmen's Bureau also withdrawn as soon as the proper spirit is shown to give the freedmen a fair trial. That he then considers the work of reconstruction complete, and that he cannot but recognize them as States upon an equal footing with the Northern States: that war will be declared at an end. Large numbers of those now excluded in the amnesty proclamation will be pardoned by another proclamation.

The Southern applicants for Congressional Seats.

Considerable speculation is being indulged in as to the manner in which the Senate will treat Thaddeus Stevens' resolution for reconstruction, already passed by the House of Representatives. It is generally supposed that Senators Doolittle, of Wisconsin; Dixon, of Conn.; Cowan, of Penn., and Trumbull, of Ill., will oppose it steadily; and of those who are considered doubtful are Fessenden, of Me., Foster, of Conn.; Harris, of New York, and Anthony, of Rhode Island. Should all the doubtful ones join the Democrats there will be a radical majority of five. A caucus of Republican Senators will, however, be held to consider that and other matters.

Generals Butler and Grant.

It is not improbable that Gen. Butler, feeling himself injured by the report of Gen. Grant, has again requested the acceptance of his resignation, in order that he may have an opportunity to set himself right military regulations preventing him, while holding a commission, from defending himself from any assaults of a superior officer. His friends claim that he has a most complete vindication of his military career from no less persons than Gen. Grant and President Lincoln. It is not yet known that his resignation has been accepted.

Bill to fill vacancies in the Presidency.

Mr. Thayer, (Rep, Penn.) introduced a bill amending the act declaring the officer who shall act as President of the United States in case of the death, resignation, removal or disability of the President. It was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. The bill provides that in case of the death, resignation, removal or disability of the President and Vice President of the United States, the President of the Senate pro tempore; and in case there be no President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the time being; and in case there be no Speaker of the House the Chief Justice of the United States; and in case there be no Chief Justice, then the Justice of the Supreme Court who has been longest commissioned shall act as President until the disability be removed, or a new President elected.

General Banks's Views.

Gen. Banks was serenaded to-night, and responded at some length, in the course of his remarks he spoke of the unity of sentiment apparent in Congress; against the admission of Southern Congressmen, and approved of the sentiment of the Message that treason was a crime and must be made odious and rebellion forever rendered an impossibility.—He defended his course in Louisiana, and declared that it had the full approval of President Lincoln. He thought the future bright for the progress of freedom and humanity, and regarded the President's Message as an admirable document.

THE MANDAMUS AGAINST SECRETARY M'CULLOCH.

The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia on Wednesday disposed of the petiton of J. and R. H. Porter for a mandamus against Mr. Mcculloch, Secretary of the Treasury, to compel him to pay money upon an award, etc., the particulars of which we gave a day or two ago. The Court refused the prayer without expressing an opinion upon the question directly before them, namely: Can the Secretary be compelled, by a mandamus, to grant a warrant for the payment of money upon an award? The Court hastened the conclusion, and pronounced judgment for the purpose of expediting the cause that it might be taken up on writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States. One of the Judges expressed the opinion that the mandamus cannot issue, but the presiding Judge, Carter, could not concur without qualifying that opinion. He was of the beleif that the true distinction, if any can be made, between the Secretary acting in his executive capacity and acting in his ministerial capacity, begins where the official functionary interposes, arbitrarily, his private power, as distinguishable from his fiicial character, to obstruct the progress of the law. Exception was taken to the ruling of the Court, and application made for a writ of error. Rich. Whig.

The Salisbury Union Banner.

Our facetious notice of what we considered an unkind criticism on the Virginia press by our cotemporary, has produced a very handsome reply from that journal. We are especially gratified at the tone pervading its remarks and acknowledge with our best bow, and with our hand on our editorial heart, the high compliment it is pleased to pay the Norfolk Virginian.

It is lamentably true that prejudices have existed between the two States.—These prejudices originated as we had occasion incidently to show in an article of a different character from the present, at the period when the famous grant of lands to Lord Clarendon gave rise to the acrimonious disputes between the commissioners of the two Colonies relative to the "dividing line." Designing men since then have, for their own purpose, inflamed and exasperated the feeling. But the trials and vicissitudes of the struggle through which we have just passed, have done much to abate, if not indeed to obliterate entirely, this unhapy alienation. The two States have stood shoulder to shoulder from Bethel to Appomattox Court House, and the North Carolina soldiers have broken bread at Virginia firesides in every quarter of the State. Her troops have been identified with the history of the Army of Northern Virginia, and her gallant sons sleep on every battle-field. As a result of this close intimate association, the old and ill founded jealousy has been eradicated. Our history has been written on the same broad page, and our future, for weal or woe, must be nearly akin, if not absolutely identified.

It does, therefore, indeed, become us to entertain "elevated and magnanimous" feelings one for the other. If a common danger engenders a common sympathy; if participation in sorrow, and privation, and glory constitute a bond of Union, then that between the Old North State and the Old Dominion, should be indissoluble.—Norfolk Virginian.

LOCAL.

MAJ. GENERAL MAHONE.

This chivalrous gentleman, well known to many North Carolinians as the hero of many a hard contested field during the bloody struggles of 1864 around Richmond and Petersburg, has been elected President of the South Side (Virginia) Railroad. We congratulate the stockholders and friends of this Road upon the selection of an officer so worthy of their confidence and esteem.

BEHIND.

Owing to the great length of the President's Message, we were under the necessity of leaving out the Legislative proceedings for two issues in order to give it in full. But, if our readers will bear with us, we shall give all the proceedings, though it will place us a little behind a few, would-be, fast papers. Not that these proceedings are of great importance, but that the public may see what our legislators are doing, and that we may have a file for future reference.

It is not often that we are behind our contemporaries in giving the latest news, and we use our best efforts to give that only, which we deem reliable.

INSANE ASYLUM.

We see that M. L. Holmes, Esq., has been elected one of the Directors of this Institution.

AN OVERSIGHT.

We neglected, yesterday, to call attention to Mr. Frankford's advertisement. It will be seen, by reference to it, that Mr. F. offers for sale his pleasant residence on main street. This is a fine opportunity for any one who wishes to invest in real estate in our flourishing city.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

R. Murphy—Store house to rent.

S. Frankford—House and Furniture to sell.

Parkinson & Co.—$250,000 worth of Jewelry, &c., to be drawn for.

John D. Brown—20 shares of Railroad stock for sale.

SAD.

We publish to-day a notice, headed "Wanted—information," to which we call the attention of all that feel an interest in alleviating the heart-broken and bereaved.

W. P. Reese, Esq., of Selma, Ala., desires information concerning the whereabouts of Willie Reese, a soldier, from whom he has not heard for many long, weary months.

This is a sad enquiry; it reminds us that thousands of our people are bowed down in grief because of the absence of relatives and friends from whom they can get no tidings. And sader still, many anxious, bleeding hearts mourn for those they love, who will never greet them again on earth.

Any information sent to Mr. Reese will be most thankfully received.

THE LITTLE FAIRY.

Our engagements prevented us from visiting the exhibition last night at the city Hall; but we learn that Miss Nail's diminutive size and her astonishing expertness at spinning and knitting excited the highest admiration.

She may be visited to day and to-night. She will appear again at the city Hall for the last time before she starts Northward.

PROPOSALS FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

We publish below proposals for carrying the mails weekly to the County seats of this State, until the first of January next. We trust that persons who may be disposed to make proposals will do so at once, as mails are very much needed. We learn that ten dollars per mile will be allowed for this temporary service. The post offices on the various lines will be supplied, and it is desirable that postmasters be appointed at once. Proposals for any of these routes, and nominations for Postmasters, may be addressed to Gov Holden, to be forwarded by him to Washington. Persons who may propose to carry the mails must offer the necessary evidence that they will comply with their contracts; and nominations for Postmasters must be endorsed by loyal men, known to the Governor. Females may act as Postmasters, and there is no objection to appionting them.

The advertisement for the regular mail service in this State will appear soon.

We learn that the granting of this special temporary mail service is due to the indefatigable exertions of Dr. R. J. Powell, the State Agent in Washington, aided by W. S. Mason and W. J. Palmer, Esqr's. of this city. We believe that no such favor has been extended to any other State.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
W. DENNISON,

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in this enterprise.—Effort to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in the grave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitious one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of old issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature of the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary men—certainly no greater master of vigor and satire in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Polard's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to

H. RIVES POLLARD,
Richmond, Va.

Wanted, an Agent in every town in Virginia and all the Southern States.

Also, immediately, twenty active and enterprising men to travel and canvass for the paper—a fine chance for men out of employment. H. R. P.

NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of, operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. By the use of the patented shuttle and straight needle, it makes a stitch, which can neither rip nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric. with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coachmaker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines a prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.
